ORDER

Pursuant to a review of this case for entry of appropriate scheduling orders, it is, for good cause, ORDERED as follows:

A. Pending Motion:

_____Plaintiff shall file on or before February 14, 2006, any response in opposition to Defendant MeadWestvaco Corporation's Motion to Dismiss, filed on January 24, 2006 (Doc. 14),

B. Magistrate Judge Consents or Reassignment Requests

The record reflects the Clerk's transmittal of notice — to plaintiff on December 2, 2005, defendant ReliaStar Life Insurance Company on January 9, 2006, and defendant MeadWestvaco Corporation on January 13, 2006 — of the random assignment of this civil case to a United States Magistrate Judge, who is authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) to conduct any and all proceedings in a jury or non-jury civil case and to order the entry of final judgment upon the consent of all parties to a case. Any appeal from a judgment entered by a Magistrate Judge is taken directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit in the same manner as any appeal from any judgment entered in this court. Any party to this lawsuit has the right to consent to, or decline to consent to, the exercise of jurisdiction of a Magistrate Judge, without adverse consequences. Counsel for the parties are DIRECTED to execute and send to the Clerk, for receipt not later than February 6, 2006, either the attached form for consent to the Magistrate Judge's exercise or jurisdiction or the attached form for reassignment of this case to the District Judge.

C. Dispositive Motions

The longstanding practice in this district is that dispositive motions shall be filed no later than 90 days prior to the pretrial date. If the parties seek to vary from that schedule, they should present, in the plan, specific case-related reasons for the requested variance.

D. Scheduling for Trial

The court may or may not hold a scheduling conference before issuing a scheduling order, and counsel may indicate any preference on the Rule 26(f) report. If the court sets a scheduling conference, counsel may participate by conference call as circumstances may warrant.

This case will be set for trial during one of the assigned judge's regularly scheduled civil trial terms. The pretrial date is normally set within four to six weeks of a scheduled trial term. The dates of each judge's civil trial terms are available on the court's website located at <http://almd.uscourts.gov> in the civil case information section.

The scheduling order entered by the court will follow the form of the Uniform Scheduling Order adopted by the judges of this court. The Uniform Scheduling Order is also available on the court's website.

Done this 25th day of January, 2006.

EXPLANATION OF ASSIGNMENT TO UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This civil case has been randomly assigned to a United States Magistrate Judge of this court. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), the Magistrate Judges of this court are designated to conduct any and all proceedings in a jury or nonjury civil case and order the entry of final judgment upon the consent of all parties to a case. Any appeal from a judgment entered by a Magistrate Judge is taken directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit in the same manner as any appeal from any judgment entered in this court.

Any party to this lawsuit has the right to consent or decline consent to the jurisdiction of a Magistrate Judge. To exercise your right to consent you should complete the consent form and return it to the Clerk of the Court as indicated in the court's order. Litigants, without concern for any adverse consequences, freely may decline consent to the jurisdiction of a Magistrate Judge. If you decline consent to the jurisdiction of a Magistrate Judge, this case will be reassigned randomly to a District Judge.
